Luxurious Caribbean and Central American Hotels Present Price Saving Holiday Specials For Multigenerational Families

Houston, TX, October 4, 2016 – Research reveals that 40 percent of families went on a multigenerational trip last year. Grandparents and parents traveling with children often seek destinations with great value for the money, convenience and signature memories for a lifetime. As the holidays approach, Prohotel International, a Houston-based management, sales and marketing company, provides multigenerational travelers with all the comforts of home in three boutique properties – Sublime Samana Hotel and Casas del XVI in the Dominican Republic and The Lodge and Spa at Pico Bonito in Honduras.

Casas del XVI

Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic

Nestled in the heart of Santo Domingo's Ciudad Colonial (Colonial City), Casas del XVI is an exclusive collection of privately restored homes dating back to the Spanish conquistadors. The boutique hotel provides families with all the comforts of home -- private butler, personal chef and concierge -- with 12 rooms sprinkled between four homes in the Colonial neighborhood.

During the holidays, Casas del XVI will be just minutes from many open air concerts at the Plaza España, as well as Christmas carols during the day and jazz concerts at night at Calle El Conde. And, of course, there is the traditional Christmas Eve mass at the oldest Cathedral in the Americas for those who seek this experience.

Casas del XVI offers the following holiday packages. To book these limited time offers, visit www.casasdelxvi.com or call (855) 849-6396 or (809) 688-4061.

- Casa de los Mapas Home-Away-From-Home Special -- Save 10 percent or $150 per night when families book a minimum of two nights stay at this home. Enjoy exclusive access to the entire home and have your family stay in three luxurious rooms, see vintage maps once used by the first Spanish settlers, breakfast daily, spacious courtyard with swimming pool and private butler to tend to your family.

Price is $1,350 (plus tax and service) per night and it is valid for a maximum of six people (adults and children) to stay at the home from now through December 21st.

- Historic New Year's Package– Save $355 when you stay three nights in a luxury room. Enjoy daily breakfast a la carte, a New Year's Eve three-course romantic candlelit dinner with bottle of champagne, and one walking tour of Ciudad Colonial (Colonial City).

Price is $1,195 (plus tax and service). Families must pre-pay for this non-refundable package by October 31st.

Sublime Samana Hotel Las Terrenas, Dominican Republic

Serene and secluded, Sublime Samana Hotel is perfectly situated on the Samaná Peninsula in the Dominican Republic's Northeastern coast. Sublime Samana Hotel offers multigenerational families an exclusive collection of 26 private suites and casitas. Families will find these units are great value for the money just steps from the white sand beaches.

During the holidays, families have endless opportunities to immerse themselves in the series of cascading pools sprinkled throughout the property. For those looking to bond with nature, Sublime Samana presents possibilities to snorkel in crystal clear waters teeming with coral reef and tropical fish, hike to El Limón Falls for awe-inspiring waterfalls or simply paddle board or swim near the beach.

Families can also ring in New Year's Eve with a spectacular five course dinner complete with Champagne and Hors d'oeuvres, live band, as well as a party after midnight to ring in 2017. The New Year's Eve dinner is only available for hotel guests for the price of $160 for adults and $60 for children five to 14 years old and free for kids one to four years old. Tax and service are an additional cost.
